Dear Frank:

Many thanks for your letter of July 22 and the report of your conversation with Clark Clifford. I appreciate your letting me know of his comments.

I hope that we can get together some time after my return from San Clemente in September.

Warm regards,

RE: Clark Clifford

Dear Henry:

I just wanted you to know that I had a luncheon talk with Clark Clifford at his request. He is very much surprised at the President's reaction to his article in Foreign Affairs. He advises me that he honestly thought it would be helpful to the Administration. I gather from what he said that if there is any way he can help, he would be more than happy to do so. Enough said.

Good luck on your forthcoming trip!

Warmest regards,

Sincerely,

Frank

Dear Mr. Lincoln:

Just a note of acknowledgment of your letter of July 22 to Dr. Kissinger who unfortunately left on the Presidential trip prior to its arrival. I am holding it for his return.

Sincerely yours,
